Comparative Literature

The minor in comparative literature consists of a minimum of 15 units in comparative literature, 12 units of which must be in upper division courses. The 12 units of upper division work must be selected, with adviser’s approval, from within one of the following interest areas:

- European Literature: Comparative Literature 513, 514.

- Asian, African, and Latin American Literature: Comparative Literature 440, 445, 451, 530.

- Comparative Literary Theory (Theory of literature, genre study, literature in relation to other arts and disciplines): Comparative Literature 561, 562, 580, 594, 595.

In addition the following variable content courses may be used in any of the above categories when they are appropriate: Comparative Literature 577, 596.

For other adjustments to the Comparative Literature Minor please make an appointment to meet with the Undergraduate Adviser.

The Comparative Literature minor is not available to students majoring in English.

Courses in the minor may not be counted toward the major, but may be used to satisfy preparation for the major and general education requirements, if applicable. A minimum of six upper division units must be completed in residence at San Diego State University.
