MATERIALS NEEDED IN ORDER TO HAVE A COMPLETED APPLICATION FOR THE HONORS PROGRAM:

- 1) A copy of your transcript of undergraduate course work (an unofficial transcript is fine). If you have taken relevant literature courses at another institution, either attach a transcript from that institution or list the courses, school, and grades you received on a separate piece of paper.
- 2) A writing sample of a paper you wrote for a literature class. This should be a paper you wrote for an upper-division class and should be 7-10 pages long. Please include a copy of the paper your professor graded. If you believe it would be helpful, feel free to include the paper prompt. If you are interested in writing a creative thesis, please include a sample of your creative work as well.
- 3) A one-paragraph Honors thesis project description/proposal.
- 4) Please provide the name of at least one SDSU English / Comparative Literature faculty member who can act as a reference.
- 5) Please submit your Honors English / Comparative Literature application materials to the Department of English and Comparative Literature office, AL 226, Attention: Undergraduate Advisor
